

Making a Seasonal Round

Use a compass or appropriately sized objects to trace a set of circles. Place the circles one inside the other as shown. To make my large poster-sized seasonal round I used trash cans and buckets to make my circles.

You make divide the circle into quarters for each season, divide the quarters into three equal sections to make three months for each season, or division you choose.